

Programme

Breakfast & Registration 0800 - 0845

Keynote Speaker

A senior figure leading the future vision for the Thames Estuary will open the conference, setting the tone and sharing exclusive insights into the importance of the corridor and the phenomenal opportunities that can be unlocked.

Keynote

ANO

TBC

0845 - 0900

Session 1: Thames Estuary – A Case For The South When Everyone Is Looking North

0900 - 1015

Private and public sector leadership provide an exclusive update on the social and political news surrounding the whole Thames Estuary ambition and give an insight into how our audience can help with challenges and opportunities.

Chair: Urban Catalyst; Ken Dytor, Executive Chairman

Lendlease; Bek Seeley, Managing Director

Homes England; Shona Johnstone, Senior Strategy and Markets Manager

South East LEP; Sarah Dance, Deputy Chair

The City of London Corporation; Paul Wilkinson, City Surveyor

London Borough of Barking & Dagenham; Cllr Darren Rodwell, Leader

1015 - 1045 Break & Networking

Session 2: Building Neighbourhoods of the Future on the Thames Estuary

1045 - 1200

One million homes are needed to support economic growth for the 2050 vision. Our audience will hear from the major residential developers who will talk about their forthcoming schemes and how the supply chain can support their goals.

Chair: Available to Sponsor

Thurrock Council; Lyn Carpenter, Chief Executive

Swan Housing Association; Duncan Innes, Project Director

Peabody Housing Association; John Lewis, Executive Director, Thamesmead

Ebbfleet Development Corporation; Ian Piper, Chief Executive

Speaker 5 - TBC

1200 - 1245 Lunch & Networking

Session 3: Building Services to Support Placemaking and Development

1245 - 1345

With over a million people expected to live in new communities across the estuary, public services will be designing and building new developments to cope with societal needs. This panel will comprise of the decision makers charged with delivering a major programme of works over the next 10 years.

Chair: Available to Sponsor

Medway NHS Foundation Trust; Gary Lupton, Director of Estates & Facilities

London Borough of Bexley; Councillor Teresa O'Neill OBE, Leader of the Council

University of Greenwich; Professor Jane Harrington, Vice-Chancellor

Thames Estuary 2100/Environment Agency; Cantor Mocke, Area Flood and Coastal Risk Manager, London

Urban Catalyst; Jason Robinson, Managing Director

1345 - 1415 Break & Networking

Session 4: Developing a Productive Corridor and Thriving Industry

1415 - 1515

The Mayor of London, the South East LEP, the South East Creative Economy Network and partners in East London, South Essex and the North Kent Coast have a shared vision for the Thames Estuary Production Corridor, a bold programme developing a world-class cluster of creative and cultural production along the Estuary. This session will set out that vision and underline how investors and the built environment can get involved.

Chair: Available to Sponsor

Creative Estuary; Emma Wilcox, Project Director

Be First; David Harley, Head of Regeneration

London Assembly; Justine Simons OBE, Deputy Mayor, Culture and the Creative Industries*

Ballymore; Laura Corr, Senior Development Manager

Session 5: Transformational Development Initiatives

1515 - 1615

Blue chip developers and investors showcase their forthcoming land and property development projects through a series of presentations, following by interactive Q&A.

Chair: Available to Sponsor

Southend-on-Sea Borough Council; Alison Griffin, Chief Executive

Turnstone Estates; Tim Deacon, Director

Transport for London; Rosie Sterry, Development Planner

NewRiver; Justin Thomas, Director of Development

Arora Group; Surinder Arora, Founder and Chairman

Lincoln Property Company; Alex Aitchison, Director of Development

1615 - 1630 - Conference Summary & Conference Close

Invited*