

Programme

1000 – 1030 Doors Open & Networking

Session 1: Zero Carbon after Covid-19

1030 - 1130

Some of the most influential names in the industry will come together to discuss the need for a collaborative working across the industry to tackle climate emergency. In this Question Time style session, you'll be able to ask your questions throughout.

Chair: Session Sponsor: (Available - click for details)

Renewable UK; Barnaby Wharton, Director of Future Electricity Systems

Ssassy Property; Ian Pritchett, Director

Clean Growth Fund; Beverley Gower-Jones, Managing Partner

One Public Estate/The Cabinet Office; Laura Shepherd, Head of Commercial Strategy

1130 – 1135 Networking & Exhibition

Alternative Ways to Develop Zero Carbon Property

1135 - 1155

Reach Homes are looking to change the housing market. With their eco-homes using 60% locally recycled materials and costing much less than the traditional home, their founder Jon will showcase the company's plans to shake up the housing market.

Reach Homes; Jon Johnson, Founder

1155 – 1200 Networking & Exhibition

Session 2: Zero Carbon – Major Developments

1200 - 1300

Major developers behind multi-million and multi-billion pound projects will share their approach to development with net zero in mind – with a view on major large scale development and building for the future.

ABB; David Lowen; Product Marketing Director

TfL Property Development; Derek Wilson, Senior Sustainable Development Manager

Grosvenor Group; Lucy Puddle, Project Director

Nuveen Real Estate; Abigail Dean, Head of Sustainability

1300 – 1305 Networking & Exhibition

(Breakout Session) Lendlease - A Commitment to a Zero Carbon Britain

1305 – 1325

Lendlease are involved with some of the biggest development and regeneration schemes in the UK but are conscious of their sustainable responsibilities. Paul will reveal more about how Lendlease are leading in sustainable development in the UK with the company due to announce their future zero carbon targets in the coming months.

Lendlease; Paul King, Managing Director, Sustainability & Social Impact – Europe

1325 – 1330 Networking & Exhibition

Session 3: Public Sector Sustainability

1330 - 1430

In this session we'll hear from councils, universities and more about plans being put in place to develop more sustainable and energy efficient developments as well as sustainable upgrades to current estates.

Chair; Session Sponsor: (Available - click for details)

University of Strathclyde; Dr Roddy Yarr, Assistant Director

Harwell Science & Innovation Campus; Emma Southwell-Sander, Head of EnergyTec Cluster Development

Aston University; Andrew Bryers, Energy, Environment and Sustainability Manager

1430 – 1435 Networking & Exhibition

Energy Generation and the Net Zero Agenda

1435 - 1455

Nottingham City Council have set themselves the ambitious target of being Zero Carbon by 2028 having met its previous target to cut CO2 emissions 25% by 2020 two years early. Wayne will expand on how they achieved this goal and they will reach their 2028 target.

Nottingham City Council; Wayne Bexton, Head of Energy Services

1455 – 1500 Networking & Exhibition

Session 4: Zero Carbon Major Developments 2

1500 - 1600

Major developers behind multi-million and multi-billion pound projects will share their approach to development with net zero in mind – with a view on major large scale development and building for the future.

Chair: Session Sponsor: \(Available - click for details\)

Canary Wharf Group; Kristina Arsenievich, Senior Sustainability Manager

Bradford Estates; Alexander Newport, Managing Director

RDRL; Ken Ross, Chief Executive Officer

Joseph Homes; Douglas Fearon, Senior Technical Manager

1600 – 1630 Networking, Exhibition & Close
