

Programme

11100 - 1130 Doors Open & Networking

Session One: Blue Light Estate's Future: Exploring Collaboration and Assessing the Opportunity 0930 – 1030

Decision makers and policy influencers from across the Blue Light property sector come together to review learnings from a turbulent 18 months but also set out the agenda of what will be done over the coming years as part of an interactive Q&A

Session Sponsor: (Available – click for details)

Cabinet Office; Chris Watts, Regional Programme Manager (Blue Light Estates)

National Fire Service Estates Group; Alex Brown, Chair

Enable North Yorkshire; Simon Garnett-Spence, Head of Assets

1030 - 1100 Networking & Exhibition

Session Two: Blue Light Estate Development Challenges and Innovations 1100 - 1215

A host of blue light estate professionals present an overview of their upcoming complex property projects through a series of high level presentations and Q&A and engage with the audience on what might be done to deliver them

Chair: Sypro; Simon Hunt, Chief Executive Officer

National Police Estates Group; Sallie Blanks-Nash, National Co-ordinator

Bedfordshire Fire and Rescue; Steve Kightley, Director of Property

Cheshire Fire & Rescue & Cheshire Police; Steve McGlade, Head of Joint Estates

1215 - 1245 Networking & Exhibition

Session Three: Delivering Future Blue Light Development Projects in Challenging Times 1245 - 1400

As the judicial review process accelerates, a number of major blue light estates projects are coming to the fore. In this session the masterminds behind those projects unveil them to the audience via a series of presentations and audience engagement

Session Sponsor: (Available – click for details)

Devon and Cornwall Police; Laura Haynes, Head of Estates

West Yorkshire Police; Matt Saunders, Head of Estates

Gloucestershire Constabulary; Vicki Heselton, Head of Estates and Support Services

1400 – 1430 Networking, Exhibition & Close
