

Programme

1000 - 1030 Doors Open & Networking

Keynote

2020 has been an extremely challenging year for University Estates teams, as the pandemic impacts day to day activity across UK campuses and several major property projects on hold or postponed, our keynote address will assess how Covid-19 and other pressures may lead to a rethink in our perception of a University.

1030 – 1050

DAC Beachcroft; Nicola Fairbairn, Real Estate Partner

1050 - 1100 Networking & Exhibition

Session One: Collaboration – Working With Public and Private Sector Partners To Deliver Transformational University Estate's Projects

1100 - 1215

A host of University estate professionals unveil upcoming collaborative property projects that they are delivering with other public and private sector organisations

Chair: PAGABO; Emma Hesbrook, Regional Relationship Manager
Newcastle University; Iain Garfield, Director of Estates & Facilities
University of Westminster; Christopher Hinge, Director of Estates Planning & Services
University of Bedfordshire; Alistair Burg-Broquere, Director of Estates

1215 - 1245 Networking & Exhibition

Session Two: Delivering Campuses of the Future: Master Planning World Class Estates

1245 - 1400

Over a billion pounds of future development will be dissected and discussed in this session as a series of Estates Director's talk about their campus masterplans and how they will shape the student experience at their institution's over the next decade

Chair: Mott MacDonald; Saud Muhsinovic, Global Practice Lead Higher Education
University of Nottingham; Linda Goodacre, Director of Estates and Facilities
Kings College London; Peter Ward, Director of Real Estate Development
Birmingham City University; John Plumridge, Director of Estates & Facilities
SOAS; Richard Scrase-Field, Director of Estates and Property Services

1400 - 1430 Networking & Exhibition & Close
