

Programme

0845 - 0915 Doors Open & Networking

Keynote

0915 - 0945

As the leading trade association for the nuclear industry, the NIA has its pulse on the sector like nobody else. In this opening keynote they'll share their insights, trends and growth opportunities they're identifying across the area.

Nuclear Industry Association; Tim Stone, Chair

0945 - 1000 Networking & Exhibition

Session One: The UK's Nuclear Industry

1000 - 1100

In this session we will hear from a multitude of nuclear stakeholders, about how the country is currently using nuclear power, and how it can utilize it more.

Session Sponsor: (Available – click for details)

Chair: Built Environment Networking; Amanda Griffiths, Director

GE Hitachi Nuclear Energy; David T. Sledzik, Senior Vice President, Sales / Joint Venture Alliance Leader

UK Atomic Energy Authority; Paul Methven, Director

National Nuclear Laboratory; Speaker TBC

TerraPower; Speaker TBC

1100 - 1130 Networking & Exhibition

Session Two: Hinkley Point C

1130 - 1215

In this session we will hear from the masterminds behind the Hinkley Point C plant, and how development is important to them including the development of two new nuclear reactors.

Hinkley Point C; Andrew Cockcroft, Senior Manager – Community Relations

1215 - 1230 Networking & Exhibition

Session Three: Rolls Royce

1230 - 1315

In this session we will hear from Rolls Royce who have plans to build 60 mini Nuclear Reactors, and how this will help the UK achieve their zero carbon ambitions.

Rolls Royce; Tom Samson, Interim CEO, UK Small Modular Reactors Consortium

1315 - 1330 Networking & Exhibition

Session Four Sizewell C

1330 - 1415

In this session we will hear from Sizewell and EDF about their ongoing development ambitions for Sizewell C and how this will affect the surrounding areas.

Session Sponsor: (Available – click for details)

Sizewell C / EDF Energy; Julia Pyke, Director of Financing

Other speakers TBC

1415 - 1430 Networking & Exhibition

Session Five: Sellafield

1430 - 1500

In this session we will hear from Sellafield about their ongoing ambitions regarding development, and how this is important to the North of England.

Sellafield Ltd; John Berry, Senior Supply Chain Manager

1500 - 1530 Networking, Exhibition & Close
