

Programme

0930 - 1000 Doors Open & Networking

Session One: Science and Innovation as Drivers of Economic Growth

1000 - 1100

With unprecedented growth and investment in the sector planned for the coming years, our expert panel of policy makers, development experts and investors share their thought leadership on the challenges and opportunities present in the coming years via an interactive Q&A.

Chair: Acuity Law; Barry Sankey, Partner
Biocity; Dr Glenn Crocker, Chairman
Hethel Innovation; Imogen Shipperlee, Innovation Manager
UKSPA; Professor Patrick Bonnett, Director & Vice Chairman
Exeter Science Park; Sally Basker, Chief Executive

1100 - 1130 Networking & Exhibition

Session Two: Science & Innovation Parks as Economic Ecosystems

1130 - 1230

A host of senior leaders from science parks, innovation and research firms and development companies discuss their upcoming plans to invest and develop, as well as the role they play in driving economic growth.

Chair: Bidwells; Nick Pettit, Partner
BioMed Realty; Orestis Tzortzoglou, Senior Development Director
Cambridge Innovation Parks; Professor John French, Director of Development & Sustainability
Stevenage Bioscience Catalyst; Dr Sally Ann Forsyth, Chief Executive Officer

1230 - 1300 Networking & Exhibition

Session Three: Ingredients for Innovation: How Do We Develop The Science Parks of the Future?

1300 - 1400

Science and Innovation Parks are set to be at the forefront of the economic recovery, but what will they evolve to look like over the next 15 years? Our panel of science park operators and developers look ahead to how they're planning their campuses to look in the future and discuss what elements need to be considered when planning for the future.

Chair: 3PM; Suzannah Howson, Partner
Discovery Science Park; Mayer Schreiber, CEO
Aberystwyth Innovation and Enterprise Campus; Dr Rhian Hayward, Chief Executive Officer
The Oxford Science Park; Piers Scrimshaw-Wright, Chief Executive Officer
Turnstone Estates; Tim Deacon, Director

1400 - 1430 Networking & Exhibition & Close
