0845 - 0910 Doors Open & Networking

Keynote

0910 - 0945

The event will kickstart with a keynote from our headline partner Social Value Portal who're playing a crucial role in allowing the public sector, developers and other key stakeholders in the development journey to measure and manage the social value they generate. Following this we'll hear a passionate talk from ACAS – the Crown non-departmental public body of the Government who support employees and employers – offering free impartial advice on workplace rights, rules and best practice.

Roundtable Discussion: The Role of Procurement in Delivering Social Value – Hosted by Nathan Spencer

1105 – 1125

We will discuss how procurement processes can deliver social value and what organisations can be doing to create a positive influence within their supply network. We encourage you to join the conversation and have a chat with us by sharing your audio and video.

Session Two: Diversifying the Industry – Removing Unconscious Bias Whilst Creating Opportunities

1130 - 1230

It can sometimes be a difficult conversation to have – but why isn't our industry more diverse? Whether it be race, gender, religion, sexuality, age, disabilities, gender identity and expression etc – small steps are being made but not quick enough. In this session we look at what needs to happen to create a more inclusive environment, tackling the difficult conversations head on.

Roundtable Discussion: Disability in Construction – Hosted by Phil Laycock

1405 - 1425

This needs to be addressed and considered while designing buildings and creating places. We also need to have a conversation about how disability is underrepresented within the construction and property industry. How can we remove unconscious bias and eradicate unfavourable views? Join the conversation by sharing your audio and video, we want to hear from you.

Session Four: Breaking Down Barriers & Stigmas Through Communication

1430 - 1530

The advice whenever something is burdening you is to share it, talk about it, and take the weight off your shoulders. That can be difficult to do even to friends and family – so bringing that into the workplace is even more challenging. In this session we look at how we can invite colleagues to open up, share their stories, and let them be the real them in the workplace, whether that workplace is virtual, physical or both.
