Programme

Session One: How Can The Thames Valley Balance Inclusive Economic Growth With The Acceleration of Major Development?

0950 - 1100

As development in the Valley quickens a host of regional policy drivers, investors and stakeholders join together to discuss how growth can remain inclusive and improve the lives of the region's residents in this interactive roundtable style discussion.

Session Sponsor: (Available – click for details)
University of Reading; Professor Robert Van de Noort, Vice Chancellor
Slough Borough Council; Dean Tyler – Associate Director of Place Strategy and Infrastructure
Lloyds Banking Group; Michelle Blayney, Ambassador

Session Two: Delivering More High Quality Homes in the Thames Valley

1130 - 1230

A series of development focused presentations looking at the way various organisations are contributing to meeting housing needs across the Thames Valley and to look ahead at what needs to be done in the future to create vibrant and inclusive communities

Chair: BDB Pitmans; Sarah Potter, Partner
Metropolitan Thames Valley; Geeta Nanda, Chief Executive Officer
Slough Urban Renewal; Andy Howell, General Manager
CALA Homes; Andrew Aldridge, Land Director (Chiltern Region)
Thakeham Group; Rob Boughton, CEO

Session Three: Thames Valley Major Development & Regeneration Plans

1300 - 1400

Major property and regeneration projects will be unveiled, discussed and analysed as part of this high level interactive session featuring presentations and Q&A with the masterminds behind them.

Session Sponsor: (Available – click for details)
Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead Property Company; Barbara Richardson, Managing Director
Areli Real Estate; Will Robinson, Development Director
Swindon Borough Council; David Dewart, Head of Strategic Placemaking
Lincoln Property Company; Alex Aitchison, Director of Development