

Programme

0915 - 0945 Doors Open & Networking

Conference Introduction & Keynote

0945 - 1000

A key voice in the political realm, we'll hear from the APPG who'll highlight the work they're doing and the changes they're lobbying for which will continue to see this sector thrive.

The All-Party Parliamentary Water Group; Baroness Anne McIntosh, Co-Chair

Session One: The UK Water Industry – The Upcoming Challenges

1000 - 1100

In this roundtable Q&A, we will hear from a selection of water companies from across the UK about what they believe are the biggest challenges facing the water sector in the UK.

Session Sponsor: (Available – click for details)

Anglian Water; Richard Beattie, Head of Integrated Supply Chain

The Environment Agency; Stuart Sampson, Water Resources Manager

The All-Party Parliamentary Water Group; Baroness Anne McIntosh, Co-Chair

1100 - 1130 Networking & Exhibition

Using DCO'S and DPO'S to Ensure Flexibility in the Consenting and Delivery of the Projects

1105 - 1120

Carter Jonas; Speaker TBC

Session Two: Yorkshire Water

1130 - 1200

One of the UK's leading water company's outline their forthcoming capital projects, future ambitions and challenges via a high level interactive presentation.

Yorkshire Water; Lee Pitcher, Head of Resilience and Partnerships (YW) and General Manager (LWW)

1200 - 1230 Networking & Exhibition

Session Three: Wessex Water

1230 - 1300

One of the UK's leading water company's outline their forthcoming capital projects, future ambitions and challenges via a high level interactive presentation.

Wessex Water; John Thompson, Executive Director of Engineering and Sustainable Delivery

1300 - 1330 Networking & Exhibition

Session Four: Scottish Water

1330 - 1400

One of the UK's leading water company's outline their forthcoming capital projects, future ambitions and challenges via a high level interactive presentation.

Scottish Water; Mark Hunter, General Manager, Development Services

1400 - 1430 Networking & Exhibition

Session Five: Water Security and Safeguarding Supply

1430 - 1530

A group of policy makers and water company professionals give their take on one of the next biggest challenges to UK prosperity- water security- by detailing the role the built environment will play in designing and delivering solutions.

Session Sponsor: (Available – click for details)

Water Resources East; Robin Price, Managing Director

South West Water; Matt Crabtree, Engineering Director

Northumbrian Water; Tamsin Lishman, Asset Director

1530 - 1600 Networking, Exhibition & Close
