

Tomorrow's Healthcare Festival of Achievement Award Categories 2023

Deadline for submission: Tuesday 14th March 2023

Outstanding Contribution to Healthcare Estates Sector

We invite nominations for Outstanding Contribution to Healthcare Estates Sector

This special award recognises outstanding individual performances within the Healthcare industry. The award celebrates those who make a difference with the design, build and maintenance of Healthcare Estates. Judges will look for the following examples and criteria when assessing submissions –

- Is based in the UK
- Demonstrates Tomorrow's Healthcare's values of trying to achieve sustainability, social value and futureproofing in all that they do
- Examples and evidence supplied to be within 2022/2023
- What successes has the candidate enjoyed?
- How have they demonstrated best practice and the highest standards the profession can offer?
- What evidence can they provide of them leading their organisation towards excellent design, build and maintenance of their estate(s)?

Share with us why you are submitting this nomination through our form (linked below) to ts.awards@built-environment-networking.com This must be between 300 – 400 words long and sent no later than 14/3/2023.

CLICK HERE for the nomination form.

Young Trailblazer of the Year Award

We invite nominations for Young Trailblazer of the Year Award.

This award recognises an individual who stands out as a future leader and influencer within the healthcare property and estates industry, spearheading positive outcomes and championing new ideas. The judging panel will look for the following examples and criteria when assessing submissions-

- Is based in the UK
- Demonstrates Tomorrow's Healthcare's values of trying to achieve sustainability, social value and future thinking in all that they do
- Reveal how the individual has made a positive organisational or industry wide impact
- Include any innovative or unique approaches to their work
- Showcase how this individual empowers others and what values they portray to their network

Share with us why you are submitting this nomination through our form (linked below) to ts.awards@built-environment-networking.com This must be between 300 – 400 words long and sent no later than 14/3/2023.

CLICK HERE for the nomination form.

New Build Project of the Year Award

We invite nominations for New Build Project of the Year Award.

This award recognises a New Build Project that stands out from the crowd. A new build that has been executed to the highest standard of sustainability, social value and innovation. Judges will look for the following examples and criteria when assessing submissions –

- Is based in the UK
- Demonstrates Tomorrow's Healthcare's values of trying to achieve sustainability, social value and future thinking in all that they do
- Examples and evidence supplied to be within 2022/2023
- Reveal how the New Build has made a positive impact within the local and wider area
- Present examples of the New Build Project and how it's build has shown a world-leading approach in the sector

Share with us why you are submitting this nomination through our form (linked below) to ts.awards@built-environment-networking.com This must be between 300 – 400 words long and sent no later than 14/3/2023.

CLICK HERE for the nomination form.

Retrofit Project of the Year Award

We invite nominations for Retrofit Project of the Year Award.

This award recognises a completed or ongoing Retrofit Project that stands out from the crowd. A retrofit programme that has been executed / being executed to the highest standard which will be seen by others as a model to utilise on their own estates. Judges will look for the following examples and criteria when assessing submissions –

- Is based in the UK
- Demonstrates Tomorrow's Healthcare's values of trying to achieve sustainability, social value and future thinking in all that they do
- Examples and evidence supplied to be within 2022/2023
- Present examples of the Retrofit and how it has shown a world-leading approach in the sector

Share with us why you are submitting this nomination through our form (linked below) to ts.awards@built-environment-networking.com This must be between 300 – 400 words long and sent no later than 14/3/2023.

CLICK HERE for the nomination form.

Social Value Project of the Year Award

We invite nominations for Social Value Project of the Year Award.

This award recognises a Social Value Project that has made a real impact with the community. This project must be driven by Social Value and have tangible evidence of how this has made an impact. Judges will look for the following examples and criteria when assessing submissions –

- Is based in the UK
- Demonstrates Tomorrow's Healthcare's values of trying to achieve sustainability, social value and future thinking in all that they do
- Evidence of the social impact and value the company has delivered across their project
- Examples of positive legacy generated for the community
- Showcase how social value has been a key focus within the procurement process
- Showcase collaborative working with the supply chain partners to deliver wider social impact

Share with us why you are submitting this nomination through our form (linked below) to ts.awards@built-environment-networking.com This must be between 300 – 400 words long and sent no later than 14/3/2023.

CLICK HERE for the nomination form.

Net Zero Project of the Year Award

We invite nominations for Net Zero Project of the Year Award

This award recognises a project which is helping drive forward the Net Zero agenda – helping to support our industry's aim to reduce carbon emissions and tackle the climate emergency. Judges will look for the following examples and criteria when assessing submissions –

- Is based within the UK
- Demonstrates Tomorrow's Healthcare's values of trying to achieve sustainability, social value and future thinking in all that they do
- Reveal how the project has made positive organisational or industry wide changes relating to the net zero agenda
- Showcase how net zero has been a key focus within the procurement process
- Include any innovative approaches to design or execution, including any research, that leads to carbon reduction within their projects and initiatives
- Clear evidence of the qualitative and quantitative impact this project has achieved

Share with us why you are submitting this nomination through our form (linked below) to ts.awards@built-environment-networking.com This must be between 300 – 400 words long and sent no later than 14/3/2023.

CLICK HERE for the nomination form.

Client of the Year

We invite nominations for Client of the Year Award.

This award recognises an outstanding client who has made positive contribution to the healthcare industry. Judges will look for the following examples and criteria when assessing submissions –

- Demonstrates Tomorrow's Healthcare's values of trying to achieve sustainability, social value and future thinking in all that they do – with a focus on their procurement processes
- Examples and evidence supplied to be within 2022/2023
- Highlight collaborative working, risk management, embracing the use of digital technologies and promoting equal opportunities
- How have they demonstrated best practice and the highest standards the profession can offer

Share with us why you are submitting this nomination through our form (linked below) to ts.awards@built-environment-networking.com This must be between 300 – 400 words long and sent no later than 14/3/2023.

CLICK HERE for the nomination form.

Contractor of the Year

We invite nominations for Contractor of the Year Award.

This award recognises the most outstanding contractor of any size who is an exemplar for both project delivery and staff wellbeing. Judges will look for the following examples and criteria when assessing submissions –

- Is a contractor working on projects within the UK
- Demonstrates Tomorrow's Healthcare's values of trying to achieve sustainability, social value and future thinking in all that they do
- Excellence in tendering, as well as client and supply chain relationships
- Evidence of how they are taking EDI and H&S of employees and sub-contractors seriously on site
- Demonstrate a strong strategic vision and solid financial performance

Share with us why you are submitting this nomination through our form (linked below) to ts.awards@built-environment-networking.com This must be between 300 – 400 words long and sent no later than 14/3/2023.

CLICK HERE for the nomination form.

Architect of the Year

We invite nominations for Architect of the Year Award.

This award recognises the most outstanding architectural practice based on business success and quality of design output, including approach and commitment to sustainability and diversity. Judges will look for the following examples and criteria when assessing submissions –

- Is an architectural practice working on projects within the UK
- Examples of their UK project/s in the sector and what makes their project delivery stand out as the best in the industry
- Demonstrates Tomorrow's Healthcare's values of trying to achieve sustainability, social value and future thinking in all that they do
- Evidence of how they responded to an initial brief and worked around planning constraints
- Details of material and method of construction used and how timetable was managed for delivery
- Demonstrate how the building contributes to its society and meets the principles of inclusive design, where applicable. Focus also on how the design has enhanced the patients experience and wellbeing.

Share with us why you are submitting this nomination through our form (linked below) to ts.awards@built-environment-networking.com This must be between 300 – 400 words long and sent no later than 14/3/2023.

CLICK HERE for the nomination form.

Consultant of the Year

We invite nominations for Consultant of the Year Award.

This award recognises the consultancy (of any size) that has showcased exemplary project delivery and staff wellbeing. Judges will look for the following examples and criteria when assessing submissions –

- Is a consultancy working on projects within the UK
- Examples of their UK project/s in the sector, and what makes their project delivery stand out as the best in their sector
- Demonstrates Tomorrow's Healthcare's values of trying to achieve sustainability, social value and future thinking in all that they do
- Excellence in tendering, as well as client and supply chain relationships
- Evidence of how they are tackling EDI and H&S of employees
- Demonstrate a strong strategic vision and solid financial performance.

Share with us why you are submitting this nomination through our form (linked below) to ts.awards@built-environment-networking.com This must be between 300 – 400 words long and sent no later than 14/3/2023.

CLICK HERE for the nomination form.

FM Business of the Year Award

We invite nominations for FM Business of the Year Award.

This award will highlight the criticality of great management practices and the impact these have on service delivery success and organisational outcomes; and the organisation will exemplify how their experience of such practices have helped transform FM services and impacted wider business success. Judges will look for the following examples and criteria when assessing submissions –

- Is based within the UK
- Demonstrates Tomorrow's Healthcare's values of trying to achieve sustainability, social value and future thinking in all that they do
- Evidence of outstanding management qualities, a committed drive for success and growth for themselves and others, a breadth of knowledge of the industry and examples of original thinking
- Development and management of FM strategy to support client organisation's overall business successes
- Highlight exemplary exceptional and innovative workplace initiatives relating to budgets, buildings, workplace projects and services.

Share with us why you are submitting this nomination through our form (linked below) to ts.awards@built-environment-networking.com This must be between 300 – 400 words long and sent no later than 14/3/2023.

CLICK HERE for the nomination form.

Innovative Product of the Year Award

We invite nominations for Innovative Product of the Year Award.

This award is aimed at an innovative product (or range of products) whose design and innovation serves a sustainable, social and/or environmental purpose. All phases of the lifecycle of the innovative product (from conception, pre-production, production, distribution, usage, after usage) will be taken into account. Judges will look for the following examples and criteria when assessing submissions –

- Is based within the UK
- Demonstrates Tomorrow's Healthcare's values of trying to achieve sustainability, social value and future thinking in all that they do
- Details of the product innovation, how it was developed, its goals and ethos and how a need was identified for the product
- Evidence and effectiveness of the product and the verifiable reductions to the environment or positive impacts to society
- Awareness raising to promote and support the environmental and/or social benefits of the product incl. market reaction, public and sector engagement, industry awards won, press coverage gained
- The wider potential for scalability and replicability.

Share with us why you are submitting this nomination through our form (linked below) to ts.awards@built-environment-networking.com This must be between 300 – 400 words long and sent no later than 14/3/2023.

CLICK HERE for the nomination form.