

Airport Cities Development Conference 2019

Time:
11th June 2019
0800 - 1600hrs
Venue:
Concorde Conference
Centre, Manchester

Event Overview

Airport Cities are set to be crucial in driving economic growth across the UK, and there is a major focus on creating a thriving aerotropolis around many UK airports. This urban form evolving around many airports is set to see hundreds or even thousands of hectares of undeveloped land being transformed, which will bring a mass of opportunities for development across all sectors, helping drive economic growth and unlock phenomenal opportunities within the region. The inaugural Airport Cities Development Conference will bring together over 300 leaders from across the construction, property and infrastructure industries to hear about the plans of leading UK airports, whilst networking and connecting to promote a collaborative approach to this form of transformational development happening in and around airports.

The event represents a unique opportunity to fully understand what an Airport City means to those at the forefront of the development – not only for the airport and the surrounding area, but surrounding communities, cities and the wider UK economy. It will include many speakers that are leading the vision for the UK's airports and their cities, as they share future plans and ways of getting involved as they look to engage with investors, developers and more.
