

Programme

Breakfast & Registration 0800 - 0845

Keynote Speaker

After a morning of networking, guests will be asked to take a seat before being welcomed to the event by a senior figure – and they'll inspire the audience and set the tone for discussions to come.

Keynote

Highways England;

Elliott Shaw, Executive Director Strategy and Planning*

0845 - 0900

Session 1: UK Highways Q&A

Leading experts from across the built environment set the tone and sharing exclusive insights into the links between infrastructure enhancement and economic growth and development.

Chair: Available to Sponsor

Highways England; Chris Taylor, Director of Complex Infrastructure*

Women in Transport; Sonya Byers, Chief Executive

Department for Transport; Ruth Harper, Deputy Director, London South and Housing*

Chartered Institute of Transport and Logistics; Sue Terpilowski, Chair of the Public Policies Committee

Transport for the North; Owen Wilson; Major Roads Strategy Manager

0900 - 1015

1015 - 1045 Break & Networking

Session 2: The Public Sector Perspective

Transport bodies and public sector authorities are leading the way in lobbying and funding crucial infrastructure to unlock regional economic growth. In this session we'll hear about those plans and the opportunities they'll present...

Chair: Built Environment Networking; Amanda Griffiths, Director

Highways England; Dean Sporn, Regional Investment Programme Director

Lancashire County Council; Phil Green, Director of Growth, Environment and Planning

Gloucester City Council; Councillor Paul James, Cabinet Member for Regeneration and Economy

Leicestershire County Council; Ian Vears, Deputy Director for Environment and Transport

Shropshire County Council; Mark Barrow, Executive Director of Place

1045 - 1200

1200 - 1300 Lunch & Networking

Session 3: The Future of our Roads: What lies ahead?

The global climate crisis has cemented the need to develop sustainable and future-proofed infrastructure. Highways Experts will highlight potential routes that can aid the sustainable development of our roads and infrastructure.

Chair: Available to Sponsor

Highways England; Dr Joanna White, Head of Intelligent Transport Systems

University of Leeds; Professor Jillian Anable, Professor of Transport and Energy, Institute of Transport

University of Cambridge; Dr Jennifer Schooling, Director - Centre for Smart Infrastructure and Construction

Formula E Operations; Speaker TBC

Connected Places Catapult; Neil Fulton, Chief Operating Officer

1300 - 1400

1400 - 1430 Break & Networking

Session 4: MSA Developers and Providers

The increased demand for Motorway Service Areas (MSA) across the UK is leading to a major drive in new developments and we'll hear from the leading developers who'll reveal their ongoing and future MSA projects.

Chair: Available to Sponsor

BP Oil UK; Helen Casey, Future Partnerships Director*

Extra Motorway Services; Andrew Long, Chief Executive

Moto Hospitality; Ken McMeikan, Chief Executive

Welcome Break Motorway Services; John Diviney, Chief Executive

1430 - 1530

Session 5: Infrastructure Enhancement Increased Growth

Infrastructure and roads are unlocking new land for development – enabling major logistic/shed and communities to be built. In this session we'll hear from those at the forefront of these transformational schemes.

Chair: Available to Sponsor

Highways England; David Haines, Director – Regional Investment Programme

Stoford Developments; Jo Russell, Planning Director

Harworth Group; Iain Thomson, Head of Communications and Investor Relations

Scarborough Group; Mark Jackson, Managing Director

Urban & Civic; Rebecca Briton, Communications, Communities and Partnerships*

1530 - 1630

1630 - 1645 - Conference Summary & Conference Close

Invited*